You are hereby notified that unless you so appear and answer within the time specified, these plaintiffs will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint arising upon contract or will apply to the Court for any further relief demanded in the complaint.

where his auto was parked and where his wife was to meet him.

Telling the attendant to inform his wife that he was going to Placerville but would return, Pezzola and the swindlers went to that city, where he withdrew $1,000 from a savings account.

Back in Sacramento, Pezzola withdrew $2,000 more from the Bank of America at Sixth and K streets and, in company with the two men, according to police, walked to where his car was parked on Sixth, L and M streets.

Suddenly, he told Emorine, the first suspect, pleading a headache, went to a drug store.

Returning to the car, he declared:

"This is the wrong medicine. What I want is aspirin."

He handed Pezzola some small change and asked him to go back to the store and get the required medicine, and the second suspect suggested:

"Just so we know you'll come back, you leave the money here." Pezzola acquiesced and went to the store. When he returned the men had fled with his money.

At the state bureau of identification where Pezzola was shown pictures of known bunco artists, he described the men as:

No. 1. Five feet, nine; 35 years old; weight about 175 pounds; light complexioned and wearing a light

You Think It's New But Solomon Was Right

By NED RUSSELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

CLEVELAND (U)—Bill McKenzie, the public library's most vociferous research worker, slammed shut the covers of a book, "So You Think It's New," and announced that Solomon was right — everything "new" is old stuff.

For example:
The flapper of not so many years back didn't start the vogue for the painted fingernails. The real pioneer in that field was Cleopatra, Aspasia, girl friend of Pericles, also tinted her nails. As a matter of fact, a husband 2300 years ago "raised Ned" with his wife because she used cosmetics so extravagantly.

Whoever it is that gets credit for scolding girls for powdering their noses in public, is just an interloper. Ovid said many centuries ago: "A statue is never shown until it is finished."

The modern beauty parlor, where women go regularly to have eyebrows plucked, their bodies smothered in mud and their hair waved, is just an outgrowth of the ancient Egyptian days. The Egyptian beauties went through the same performances—all for beauty—and they wore high heels, too.

The fellow who boasts that the glass in his car is shatter-proof doesn't know what he's missing.

Nineteen hundred years ago, man made glass that actually was unbreakable. The secret has been lost, so we'll have to be content with the non-shatterable material.

Garden tools, or the parts of an automobile, or most anything metal will rust in time, unless you take meticulous care of it. But 30 centuries ago, the citizens near Delhi, India, didn't worry a bit about the Kutub column, made of 17 tons of iron. There still isn't a fleck of rust on it.

year period. The levy for 1934-35, the association pointed out, was the lowest in the present decade and reflected both the relief of local property through transfer of some $42,000,000 of county school support to the state general fund and the accumulated force of depression economies. Compared with the levy for 1937-38, over the state as a whole, the increase averaged 33 per cent, from $216,000,000 to $223,000,000.

The LETTER BOX

Editor, The Republican.

My letters to the press during the last three years have been, in the main, requests for cooperation in various campaigns for the promotion of safety on the highways. Now, with the date of my retirement as Director of Motor Vehicles close at hand, it is my pleasure to express my appreciation of your close cooperation.

I feel secure in the belief that lives have been saved by our constant safety crusades and I am sincere in my statement that you should share the credit.

I have inferred that this letter, unlike the others, would not be a request but I do have one request to make. I ask for my successor, as yet unnamed, the same fine spirit of cooperation you have extended to me and to the Department during my administration.

George Rochester of Los Angeles, the Deputy Director, joins me in this expression of appreciation.

Sincerely, Ray Ingels, Director.

67,000 School Children Get Tuberculin Tests

"Tuberculin testing of California's public school population, only one of many activities financed by the annual Christmas Seal Sale of the sixty-three local tuberculosis associations in the state, is vitally important because it leads to the discovery of many cases of early tuberculosis."

The foregoing statement in support of the current fund drive was made today by A. R. Clifton, Los Angeles county superintendent of schools and a director of the California Tuberculosis Association.

"More than 67,000 public school students took tuberculin tests and X-ray examinations last year in surveys conducted by local tuberculosis associations," said Mr. Clifton. "The tests revealed that about one out of every three high school students, has been infected with tuberculosis, an even higher percentage of college students and from 20 to 25 per cent of grammar school pupils.

Approximately 300 cases of adult type tuberculosis were found. The isolation and treatment of these cases is a part of the tuberculosis control program. Local associations also plan frequent physical check-ups for all students reacting to the tests.

WITH THE ANNOUNCEMENT of the handsome new 1939 Packards, no Packard owner now finds himself left with a style "orphan."

In fact, no Packard owner has ever awakened one morning, full of pride in his still-new car, only to discover that radical style changes have branded it an "out-of-date model."

Does this mean that Packard opposes style changes? Of course not—for change is the essence of progress. But Packard believes that style can, and should be, used in the best interests of the car owner, rather than against them.

This is why Packard makes its style changes with common sense and restraint, rather than with sensationalism.

So, again for 1939, you will find Packards re-styled, more beautiful than ever. But you will also find them unmistakably Packards—no one has to guess what they are.

And, again, you will find new advances in Packard design and construction—new evidences of the quality that contributes a long mechanical life to match Packard enduring identity.

See your Packard dealer today. Discover that a Packard—the car that is built to last longer and look well longer—is surprisingly easy to buy, own and run. It costs nothing to get the facts.

CATTLEMEN'S CONVENTION AT SAN FRANCISCO DECEMBER 9, 10

The annual convention of the California Cattlemen's Association will be held at the Palace Hotel, in San Francisco, Friday and Saturday, December 9 and 10. Hugh Barber of Chico, president of the association, has issued an invitation to all cattlemen in the State to attend this meeting.

Among the matters to be discussed will be the recently signed British and Canadian trade agreements.

In the new Canadian agreement, the United States cut its duty on live cattle, weighing 700 pounds or more, to 1½ cents per pound, subject to an annual quota of 250,000 head. The reduced rate of 1½ cents per pound on calves will be maintained, and the quota increased to 100,000.

The regular duty on cattle weighing 700 pounds or more is 3 cents, hence the duty under the new agreement represents a cut of 50 per cent. The regular duty on calves is 2½ cents, hence the treaty cuts this duty by 40 per cent.

The reduction also applies to imports from Mexico under the most favored nation principle.

One third of all students entering college show traces of infection with tuberculosis.

FACTOGRAPHS

The first seaplane was made by Jean Curtis, in 1908. The pontoon attachment, however, was not perfected until 1911.

Gonorrhea was used during the World War to detect the presence of poison gas.

If you say "ordinary" to "ordinary" you are "ordinary" and fit to a certain extent. But if you say "ordinary" to "extraordinary" you express contempt, although these words are corruptions of the term "ordinary." The corrupted terms came originally from England and Ireland.

STAR REPORTER HAS "NO TIME TO MARRY" ON EMPIRE BILL

The plight of a star reporter who spends his wedding night on a goat hunt—under orders from his managing editor—provides the theme of the new Columbia romantic-comedy "No Time to Marry," which comes to the Empire Theatre for tonight and Wednesday. Furthermore, everything happens on Christmas Eve.

Richard Arlen portrays the news-hawk, and Mary Astor is seen as the woman reporter, or sob-sister, he is scheduled to marry. Also featured in the cast are Lionel Stander, as a dumb photographer; Virginia Dale, as a missing heiress, and Marjorie Gattson, as the managing editor's wife and the cause of all the trouble.

For it is she who phones the managing editor (played by Thurston Hall) and insists he keep his promise to their son and obtain a pair of goats for the boy for a Christmas present. Hall, who had forgotten his promise, orders Arlen to get the goats that night or lose his job. Meanwhile, a teletype message concerning the disappearance of Miss Dale is received—and Miss Astor is practically waiting at the church.

Such a situation—or series of situations—sounds most promising.

Michael W. Arnold has brought suit against Josephine I. Arnold whom he wed in El Dorado County on January 25, 1931, asking a divorce on grounds of desertion. There are no children and no community property is mentioned in the complaint, which was prepared by Attorney C. W. Pearson.
